declared that the statement was calculated to do great injustice to the temper and character of the body, because of the impression it would naturally make the impression it would naturally make upon the public. The Doctor did not deny that hisses were uttered, but he thought they were few, and he strongly protested against their being accepted as reflecting the sentiment and character of the Association. Dr. Battle was very severe in his characterization of hisses, and he expressed the hope that they did not proceed from delegates. He paid a tribute to the moral courage o Mr. Long, and said that, while he dif-fered radically from the position of the eminent young attorney, he very core ly accorded him ...e respect due to h m as a man of conviction and courage. Baptists, of all people in the would, could least afford to impair the inallenable right of freedom of conscience and liberty of speech. Dr. Battle paid a bandsome compliment to The Limes, but said he felt constrained to correct the impression which was doubtless made by the report. Dr. Battle, as he left the platform, was warmly thanked by Dr. C. H. Ryland and a number of other distinguished Beptists.

At the conclusion of Dr. Battle's expression, the Rev. J. B. Hawthorne, D. D., arcse and declared that he believed that there were no hisses at all. What had appeared to be such were merely exciamations of "Hush." The Association, he said, really desired to hear the young lawyer who opposed the resolution. Dr. Partle varied that many of his brighten. Battle replied that many of his brethren round about his seat thought Dr. Haw-therne's explanation a free translation but he hoped that it was the correct one. COMMITTEE APPOINTED.

WOMEN'S WORK WOMEN'S WORK.

After the adoption by a rising vote of a resolution offered by Dr. W. R. L. Smith, expressing great pleasure at an restored health of Dr. A. E. Dickinson, the veteran senior editor of the Religious Herald, the Rev. I. M. Mercer. D. D., submitted the report of the Committee on Co-operation, which has in charge the matter of exciting the churches to contritute to the various boards. The report showed the work to be in a satisfactory condition, and after its adoption, another— a supplementary one—was submitted. This additional report recommends that the Woman's Missionary Union be recognized and considered as auxidary to the General Association; that the Union be permitted to choose its own Executive Committee, which is at present elected by the Association; that a majority of the mem bers of this committee shall reside in Richmond: that the Executive Committee be expected to report to the Union and-not to the General Association; that the treasurer of the Association shall pay to the treasurer of the Union the amount the treasurer of the Union the amount necessary for expenses; and finally that the change go into effect at the next annual meeting of the Union.

Some little discussion followed over the phraseology of the report it was unanimously adopted with one immaterial change. Following this, magnificent restances. nerts were received from the various boards and officers of the Woman's Mis-sionary Union. All were highly encour-aging, showing that over $17,000 has been raised by the Union during the past year A motion to refer the request of the Un-ion for $1,000 for expenses to a special committee was defeated and the reports were unanimously adopted, and the Association expressed its graticude to the Union for its noble work.

The Afternoon Session.

The effermoon session opened at 3 tent of veitable 1 o'clock, with the Rev. W. J. Shipman, of lings and in lands. Rice, Va., one of the vice-presidents, in the chair. Until the time for the order of the day arrived, a devotional and song

Hunt Har-grave, R. H. Hudnall, W. E. Hatcher, F. H. Martin, F. C. McConnell, H. C. Smith, A. B. Woodfin, M. L. Wood, and E. E. Dudley, and reported that at this joint meeting of the committee and the Board of Trustees it was succeeded in getting $15,420 given, with the proviso that $11,600 be raised by the 19th of No-vember. The report continues: "In view of the fact that the co-operative movement had already been agitated and in view of the fact that your commit-tee wish to do nothing that might be calculated to retard the efficiency of the movement; and whereas the association has appointed an Education Commission, and whereas this valuable property of the association is now in great danger of being lost, we most carnestly advise that the commission consult with the trustees of the school and make some arrangement whereby this property may of to the Bantlete

DANGER OF BEING SOLD OUT.

In discussing this report, Rev. B. Cabell Hening made an carnest plea for the in-stitute. He declared that its amount of indebtedness had changed but little since the last session: that its financial condition is practically the same now as then. The sum of $37,000 is still owed on the buildings, and there is imminent danger hat if this amount of money is not raised at once, or at least some portion of it, the great school, worth in all about $130,000, will be sold for the bare want of the comparatively small sum named above. The property is fitted only for a school, said Mr. Henling, and it is certain to be acquired by some other denomination. Thus the Baptists would be giving $83,009 to some other denomination work against them. A great school needed in Southwest Virginia, and would break the biggest part of the work of the Raptist cause in that sec-tion of the State to lose the present one. On January 15th, said Mr. Hening, $1.525 interest will have to be paid to Mr. James A. Gray, of Baltimore, who holds a mort-gage on the institute. If the money isn't forthcoming upon that date he will sell out the co lege. In addition, the attorneys for several of those who hold claims threaten also to sell out if something isn't done by the association at the present session. The school is running well.

THE ORPHANAGE. Financially, the past year at the Baptis. Orphanage, at Salem, has been the most prosperous in the history of the institu-tion. The report of the Executive Committee of the Board of Trustees, which was submitted by Judge W. W. Moffett, was a most encouraging one and indi ates that the orphanage is rapidly grow ing into one of the very important works of one association. From all sources $28, 158.55 was received during the year. The cash receipts amounted to $15,758,08. All current expenses have been promptly me and only a debt of $3,200, created by the erection of the industrial building, remains. The orphanage owns a large extent of valuable property, both in build-for the rester; for to health of his only drughter, Mrs Carrie Ray, of Atlanta. This tract of land has been converted into a faim, named "The Carrie Ray Faim," and same portions of it is being worked and operated by the boys at the orphanage. Two purposes are plished by this farm: It gives the Joys employment and trains them in agricultural pursuits and it furnishes the best agricultural, dairy and horticultural prodnots for the use of the ornhanage at the least cost. Among the other practical departments is a knowing factory.

At the orphanage at the present time are 124 children, generally in excellent condition physically and morally. The girls, assisted by the housekeeper, seam-stress and matron, do the cooking, ironing, mending and house cleaning. ing the past year they have made 1,301 garments. The boys do the laundry work, attend to the stock, assist on the farm and in the garden. Some of them are employed in the printing office, which earned a net increase of $225. Work on the administration building be-gan some time ago and will be completed by the middle of spring. This structure will cost about $30,000, of which amount $14,518.08 has been received. Mr. H. W. Straley gave $10,000. The Rev. F. H. Martin, D. D., of Salem, has been engaged to raise the additional funds necessary for the completion of the building.

The report closes by emphasizing the imperative necessity month after month, the fund needed for current expenses. An earnest appeal is made to the association delegates to see that its contributions do delegates to see that its contributions do not cease, but that they rather increase Among those who engaged in the discussions of the report were the Rev. M. L. Wood, Dr. John Pollard, Mr. T. H. Ellett and Dr. F. H. Martin. B. Y. P. S. MATTERS.

The first written report ever presented to the B. Y. P. U. of Virginia, which has recently been drawn into close relations with the Association, was submitted by the president, Mr. Hill Montague. Annual reports will be made hercafter. The past twelve months with the Union has been a most successful one. While the work during the convention year has not been during the containing the containing quito what was anticipated, yet it is gratifying, says the report, to state that in many places the Unions are strong and the members enthusiastic in their work. During the past year eighteen new Unions have actually been reported organions have actually been reported organions. vention, in June, there were 202 Unions in all, comprising a total estimated membership of 10.743. There are Unions in 23 where he has a large practice ent session. The school is running well, has fifty-seven girls as pupils, and has in its president, Dr. Howell, a man who is capable of doing a great work there it he is given proper assistance. Mr. Hening closed with an appeal to the association for determined action, and asked that the report submitted by the Advisory Committee association states as a manufacture of the report submitted by the Advisory of the American Bantist Profit.

A unanimous vote was cast in favor of the adopted.

commission, which is probably the most important of the Assocation, is as fol-lows: Dr. T. B. Thames, Danville (chair-man); Dr. W. E. Hatcher, of Richmonn; Dr. W. L. The instructions of the Association to this commission, as set forth above, are that it shall confer at once with the trustees of the Southwest Virginia In stitute in regard to the indeptedness of the institution. It is thought that this will be done without delay. of the comm'ssion during the present as-sociational year will be to help schools that are in debt and at the same time prepare a scheme in detail for the unlikestion of Baptist schools in the State and present it to the Association at its next meeting. The membership of the commission has been carefully sethe commission has been catering selected from all parts of the State, and are considered wise and judicious men. They have upon them a very intricate and difficult work, but there is no doubt bet the task. that they will prove equal to the task.

MEET NEXT IN NORFOLK.
In adopting the report of its Committee on Time, Place and Preacher the Association decided to meet on the Thurslay after the second Sunlay of November, 1902, at 11 o'clock in the Freemason-Street Church, of Norfolk. The intro-ductory sermon will be preached by the Rev. E. W. Winfrey, of Culpeper. His alternate will be the Rev. J. W. Wildman, of South Boston.

The raising of the $75,000 and the securing of the Rockefeller conditional offer of $25,000 he declared to be of the utmost importance to the college, and also to be vitally related to the larger educational policy just adopted by the association—the co-ordination scheme. In view of this belief he asked the association to take some stand in the matter, and submitted for its adoption a resolution which was carried by tion a resolution, which was carried by unanimous vote. The resolution provides hat each church within the bounds of the association publicly present at some regular Lord's Day service between this and December 25th, the claims of work; that the presentation of the matter be followed, where practicable, by an earnest attempt to secure contributions. The pastors are urged to press this matter and send in all cash and subscriptions certainly in time to reach Richmond be-fore January 1st, so that the Rockefeller offer may be made available. In appeal-ing for action in this matter Dr. Hawthorne made an earnest plea. FOREIGN MISSIONS.

The subject of the evening—Foreign Mis-sions—was opened by the annual report of the board, submitted by the secretary, Dr. W. F. Fisher, of Portsmouth. The document is a highly interesting and en-ouraging one and says in part: Within the last three years over fifty new missionaries have been appointed and twenty-one of those were appointed in the last convention year, so that we now have on the foreign field one hundred and seven missonaries. The native workers have increased from one hundred and thirty to one hundred and seventy, which thirty to one hundred and seventy, which gives a present corps of workers numbering two hundred and seventy-five.

Another conventional year ends free of debt. Thus for four consecutive years we have been unembarrassed with debt. Another cause for rejoicing is the steady increase in contributions to the work. Last year we raised $140,000, and this capable has increased to $150,000, the largecear it has increased to $156,000, the largst amount ever raised by the board in me year. It can be readily understood that largely increased contributions mean reportionate diminution in expenses The report of the Foreign Board shows that for the last year only eight cents on the dollar were used for all expenses n Richmond and five cents for collecting, hus leaving eighty-seven cents on the dollar to go directly to the missionaries. One thousand and nine baptisms are eported during the past year. Of this number two hundred were reported in hina, notwithstanding the disorganization and demoralization incident to the war and the terrible trials the native Christians and missionaries had to endure REV. MR. MAYNARD'S STATEMENT. Before entering upon a discussion of the port the divine guidance was invoked by the Rev. Robert J. Willingham, D. O., secretary of the Foreign Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention peaking followed by Rev. Dr. Porter, of Newport News; Rev. Nathan Maynard, a returned missionary from Japan, and Dr. Willingham. Mr. Maynard gave a highly interesting account of the work in Japan, and in many respects it came as a revolution of the conditions there. Speaking of the Japanese women, he declared that despite the vaunted civilization of the race, their condition is yet but slightly better than that of the Afri-can women, though when they are con-verted to Christ they become fit to take around with the best. The deepest at-tention was given him all through, and shortly after his close a collection to aid him in creeting a house in Japan was taken and a goodly sum was contributed. The Association adjourned after hear-ing the following amouncement of the elections to fill vacancies on the Board of Trustees of the Orphanage at Salem Valley Association, Professor R. C Stearns; Strawberry Association, Rev T. H. Athey; James River Association Rev. W. C. Foster; delegate at large, Rev. T. J. Shipman.

Happy Childhood Knows What's Best

Medicine that a child dislikes, will not do it much good. Sensible parents will give the little darlings medicine that tastes good and does good, and don't grip or gripe; the kind they like themselves.

Medicine forced on the little ones loses half its power. Nasty, sickening medicine is an injustice to the dear little innocents who can't protect themselves, makes them peevish and afraid of the dose. When a child hates the medicine, it will not be effective. Children like Cascarets Candy Cathartic, ask for them and are kept healthy always and easily against the damages of childhood's ailments.
